This reimagining of the enchanting 1911 classic of children's literature tells the story of 11 year-old orphan Mary Lennox, who returns to Yorkshire, England to live with her embittered, reclusive uncle Archibald Craven and his invalid son Colin.

The Craven estate features a magic garden which beckons the children while haunting melodies by the "Dreamers," spirits from Mary's past, guide her through her new life, dramatizing The Secret Garden's compelling tale of forgiveness and renewal.

Cast

Twenty (20) adults, male and female, between the ages of sixteen and seventy.

Two (2) children (Colin and Mary), preferably ages nine to twelve. The role of Mary Lennox could be double-cast.
