General Auditions and Chip Auditions

Please arrive for auditions a few minutes early to fill out paperwork and have your photo taken. Make sure to bring a list of any conflicts you have between July 15 and October 7, including conflicts during Frontier Days. Having a few conflicts does not mean you won't be cast. Those auditioning for roles in the show should be prepared to read from the script, sing 32 measures of a musical theatre song, and learn a short dance. Callbacks will be on Monday, July 15. Please remember to bring sheet music or a CD accompaniment of your chosen musical theatre song. An accompanist and a CD player will both be available at auditions. Scripts are available for perusal at the Mary Godfrey Playhouse Box Office during office hours, but cannot be checked out.

Dance Company Auditions

Those auditioning for the Beauty and the Beast Dance Company should have several years of formal dance training in jazz or ballet. The dance company will not sing, and will have few, if any, lines in the show. If you want to audition for a speaking and/or singing role in the show, please come to the general auditions. The dance company auditions are specifically for dancers. Those auditioning for the dance company should be prepared to learn a dance, show us any special skills you have (e.g. turns, jumps, flips, etc.), and to do some acting through their dancing.
